April 6, 1903.

Miss M. Elizabeth Wyant,
High School, Ogden, Utah.

Dear Madam:-

I have pleasure in informing you that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees held Saturday, April 4, you were elected instructor in English Language and Literature in the Agricultural College of Utah for the year 1903-04, at a salary of $900 for nine months, beginning Sept. 15, 1903, and ending June 15, 1904; the first payment of salary to be made on Oct. 1, and the final payment on July 1, 1904. Should your work prove satisfactory, your position will be permanent, and at such increase in salary from time to time as your work in the department may justify and the financial condition of the institution may warrant.

Please inform me of your acceptance as soon as convenient, and oblige,

Yours very truly,

President.
